MARCUS RASHFORD IS OUR SUPERSTAR

BEANO GUEST EDITOR!

.....

‘Yes, please!’

That was my response when Beano got in touch and asked me if I’d like to edit my own special version of the comic. I jumped at the chance because this is a great opportunity for you to get to know me a little better and understand all the things that are important to me. I brought my friends from Macmillan Children’s Books and NatWest along for the journey too to help me pull together some exciting activities for you.

Nobody is a success in football without good teammates, and that’s true in life as well. Everybody needs to build a team of friends to have fun with and speak up for what’s important. Our voice is strong alone, but when our voices come together, we are powerful. When we fight for things that are important together, we can make progress a lot quicker than by ourselves. Asking for help is no weakness. Asking for help to achieve things quicker is a superpower.

Finding your voice doesn’t have to be difficult. It can be as simple as having the confidence to stand up for something you believe in, or to champion someone else and their difference. Your journey is your strength, and everyone has something valuable to contribute. I wrote my new book, ‘You Can Do It’ with my friend Carl to help you with this, and I hope you enjoy it.

My favourite thing about Beano is how the comic brings all sorts of different children together. Instead of our differences dividing us, we embrace them, and we find strength in them. We should be celebrating all the things that make each of us unique.

Reading is one of my favourite things to do because it lets me dream. I see myself achieving so much more and I’m motivated to give new things a try. Reading is my true escape and everyone should have the opportunity to find the joy in books, magazines, audiobooks or even this extra-special edition of Beano - my Beano!

Guest Editor

MARCUS AND CARL'S TOP TIPS FOR FINDING YOUR VOICE!

Do YOU want to help make the world a better place? Here's some excellent advice from You Can Do It, the brilliant new book from Marcus Rashford and Carl Anka. Your voice matters. Here's how to make it count.

KINDNESS IS A CHOICE

So choose to be kind as much as possible. It's one of the most important things a person can ever do.

IN ORDER FOR THE WORLD TO GET BETTER - FOR EVERYONE - WE ALL HAVE TO USE OUR VOICES TO LIFT UP EVERYONE ELSE

If someone comes along who has a different voice and says something you've never heard before, it's important to make sure you take time to listen to what they have to say. When someone falls, we must try and lift them back up.

DON'T WORRY ABOUT MAKING MISTAKES

They test your limits and help you figure out what you are good at and what you are less good at. Mistakes are needed for you to grow and learn.

NO ONE'S PERFECT. JUST HUMAN!

Mistakes are part of life; we just need to learn from them. The more you remind yourself of what you uniquely bring to this world, the easier it will be to accept that you're a human with flaws... just like every other human on the planet.

THERE'S NO SUCH THING AS NORMAL

Our difference is our superpower, and a strength that should be celebrated. How boring would the world be if we were all the same? Let's champion one another.

WE BECOME STRONGER WHEN WE'RE THERE FOR EACH OTHER

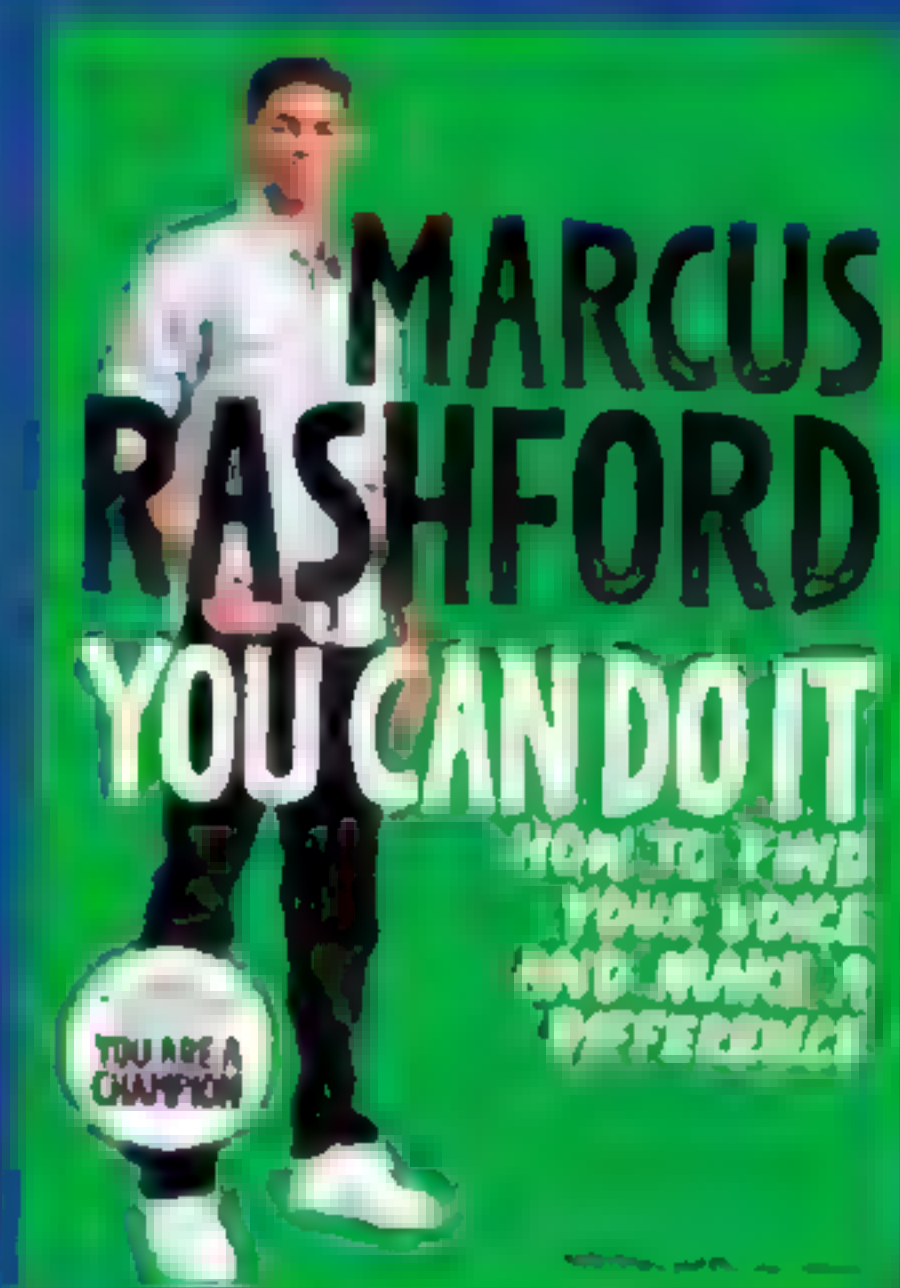

Think about your school and your community. Are there ways they could be even kinder towards the people, animals, wildlife and spaces in it? Write down three acts of kindness that could make life better where you live. For example, could people clear up after themselves a little better? Could people be kinder to shop workers in your area?

ALL CHANGE COMES ABOUT FROM ONE SMALL STEP

Think about something you care about in your area (you might not know what that is yet, and that's ok), and then do some research into learning more about it. You can ask your teachers or a parent, or a friend, for help with your research. Very often, activists learn about the work that happened before them and then look into how they might work with others in future.
